- WHEREAS: On November 30, 2013, Franklin Street Park will be dedicated in memory of Eitan Stern-Robbins; and
- WHEREAS: Eitan was a native Cantabrigian, and grew up at 60 Kinnaird Street where he lived since birth. He attended the Cambridge Rindge and Latin School, graduating in 2012 and continued his education at the University of Miami; and
- WHEREAS: On February 14, 2013, Eitan passed away in his sleep due to complications from an epileptic seizure; and
- WHEREAS: Eitan was and is the beloved son of Lisë Stern and Jeffrey Robbins, and brother to Gabriel and Shoshi Stern-Robbins. His death is a profound loss for his family, friends, many loved ones and for the entire Cambridge community; and
- WHEREAS: Eitan was known for his energy, original spirit, and passion for life. He was creative in many areas - art, writing, video games, and friendship. He truly went through life embracing the world and those around him; and
- WHEREAS: Eitan loved Cambridge and spent his childhood and young adult life making the city his home. He expressed his love for his home town: "Cambridge, you've been good to me these past 18 years. I'll always remember my times here and the people I've met...From Harvard Square to Central Square, there's always a smiling face"; and
- WHEREAS: Eitan and his friends frequently spent time in at the Franklin Street Park, where they shared many hours and memories; and

WHEREAS: Dedicating the park in memory of Eitan is yet another way his presence is Cambridge is sustained and remembered; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation at the Dedication Ceremony on behalf of the entire City Council.
